In the nomination it was stated, “All who know her or know of her are amazed at her energy, buoyancy, optimism, and strength. She inspires us all to keep moving, keep charging, keep putting out effort, keep passionate.”

Some of Emma’s myriad of activities include:

- Emma runs her own beauty salon, Emma’s Coiffures, which was built by her husband, Mickey, and opened in 1939
- Emma has raised well over $100,000 over the years. Her backyard fundraising events have benefited the Santa Clara Aquamaids, the Santa Clara Vanguard, the Triton Museum of Art, Harris-Lass Historical Museum, the Mission Library, Police and Fire Department causes, the disadvantaged, the needy, as well as several educational projects including scholarships.

- Emma’s volunteerism has made her a “One Person Chamber of Commerce” for the City of Santa Clara.
- It has been said that her volunteer projects always have the same purpose – to help enrich the quality of life in Santa Clara. Emma has been quoted as saying, “If it is good for Santa Clara, I’m for it!”
- She has worked all her life – she cut ‘cots’ (apricots) when she was 12 years old, then worked in the canneries before starting her own business.
- It has been said that “Emma colors more than people’s hair – she adds color to their lives. Once you sit in Emma’s chair, you become a loyal friend – part of the family”.
